À transmettre urgemment à M. Bivolaru Gregorian, alias Magnus Auroolsson:

Monsieur Bivolaru Gregorian, alias Magnus Auroolsson,

Le moment est venu de te prévenir dès maintenant que, à cause des actions et des commandes nous avons données il y a trois jours, tu arriveras à apprendre ultérieurement (officiellement) que ton pourvoi en cassation sera rejeté conformément à nos ordres fermes, et après cela tu seras envoyé, comme tu le mérites, dans la prison de Roumanie dont tu as tellement peur.

Tu recevras ton „prix” que nous t’avons préparé tant pour les livres et pour les conférences que tu as lancés contre nous au fur des années, que pour ton entêtement de ne pas prendre en considération et de ne pas faire ce que nous t’avons demandé dans ces lettres-là qui ont été envoyées à ton adresse en Suède.

Tu verras par toi même que nous ferons tout pour te détruire, en te gardant beaucoup d’années en prison. Sache que c’est toujours nous ceux qui avons donné l’ordre au juge Bartholin de rendre la décision que tu connais, et il a ensuite exécuté notre ordre. Tu n’as aucune chance, tu as voulu lutter contre nous, mais tu es trop petit pour réussir quelque chose.

Nos ordres seront exécutés, et tu seras ainsi convaincu que le pouvoir dont nous disposons est total.

Le pourvoi en cassation ne te servira à rien, car, comme tu l’apprendras officiellement, il sera rejeté, même si tu t’es fait beaucoup d’espoirs par rapport à ça.

Ce message s’adresse à toi personnellement de notre part, mais si tu fais l’erreur de le montrer à d’autres personnes ou de le rendre public, personne ne te croira que c’est nous qui te l’avons adressé, donc si tu le fais, même cela ce sera en vain.

Nous t’avons prévenu par rapport à tout cela, pour que tu voies la merde où tu t’es mis, en luttant contre nous, et pour t’éclaircir encore une fois sur le fait que celui qui lutte contre nous est toujours vaincu, tout comme toi, et dépourvu de toute chance.

To be forwarded urgently to Mr Bivolaru Gregorian, alias Magnus Auroldsson

Mr Bivolaru Gregorian, alias Magnus Auroldsson,

The moment has come to notify you in advance that, because of the actions and orders we have issued, you will find out later on (officially) that your appeal will be rejected in accordance with our firm orders, and after that you will be sent, as you deserve, to the jail in Romania that you are so afraid of.

You will receive the "prize" that we have prepared for you for the books and the conferences that you held against us throughout time, as well as for your stubbornness in disregarding and not doing what we have requested of you in those letters that were sent to your address in Sweden.

You will find out at your own expense that we will do everything to destroy you, keeping you in jail for many years. You should be aware that it is us who gave the order to judge Bartholin to give the sentence you know, and afterwards he carried out our order. You have no chance, you wanted to fight against us, but you are too small to accomplish anything.

Our orders will be executed, and in this way you will be convinced that the power at our disposal is total.

The appeal will serve you for nothing, because, as you will find out officially, it will be rejected, even if you have great hopes about it.

This message is addressed personally to you from us, but, if you make the mistake of showing it to others or making it public, no one will believe you that we are the ones who sent it, so if you do this it will be useless for you.

We have warned you about all these, to see the shit you got yourself into by fighting against us and to clarify once more that anyone who fights against us is always defeated, like you, and without any chances.

Letters with the same content were sent as well at the addresses of the Law offices Dominique Tricaud and Sandrine Dos Santos.

In a bizarre way, as you can notice, these letters were written and received before the decision of France Court of Cassation, and still they mentioned clearly what exactly would soon be decided in the case of Gregorian Bivolaru.

At present, the French police has already started an investigation to identify the author of these letters. Such an intervention points at shocking problems for a country of which its citizens believe that the justice system is freed of corruption and shadow play ordered decisions.

Throughout these 45 years, mass media in their totality, through an extremely suspicious pact, has simply refused to broadcast news referring to the sentence that confirms the political nature of the convictions suffered by Gregorian Bivolaru before the Revolution, regarding the terror suffered by the so-called victim (Mădălina Dumitru), a necessary pawn in the grotesque mechanism of an illegal and abusive conviction, and, also, regarding all these disturbing circumstances.

The texts of these letters and the suspicious shadow play being acted in the past and in the present in the case of Gregorian Bivolaru, will they be reported on by anyone, or will everyone adhere again to the conspiracy of guilty silence?
